

Workshop ISO 26000 - 14 & 15 October 2010 - Brussels PROGRAMME

OBJECTIVES

The participants will learn

- what ISO 26000 is, how it redesigns social responsibility for all types of organisations: principles, core issues and key topics
- how other standards interact and integrate with ISO 26000: GRI, AA1000, SA 8000, ISO 14001, UN Global Compact
- how to adapt or develop their own Social Responsibility policy
- how to identify and engage with stakeholders
- how and what to communicate in SR

Participants will also have the opportunity to take part in the first Belgian learning network on ISO 26000.

AGENDA

Day 1 : 9.30-16.30	Day 2: 9.30-16.30 + closing drink
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Introduction by Isabelle Callens, Director of the Belgian mirror committee in ISO 26000 - Context and perspectives of ISO 26000 - Scope and definitions of ISO 26000 - Link with other tools and standards - Zoom: procurement practices and supply chain - The 7 Principles of SR : alignment with your practices - Core subjects of SR - Exercise: signification of the core subjects for your organisation – role-play 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Stakeholders and society – which dialogue with your organisation? - Exercise: stakeholder mapping - SR Key issues: identification and selection - Exercise: link your core business to the ISO SR issues - Relevance and significance: set up of an action plan - Do's & Don'ts: Cases studies - Integration of ISO 26000 in your existing processes and management systems - Communication: reporting, KPIs and assurance according to ISO 26000

The training sessions alternate theoretical aspects, debates, role-play, exercises and methodologies. They are punctuated by healthy, bio, fair trade lunches, coffee breaks and drinks.

FOR WHOM?

- Representatives of the private sector (directors, CSR managers, sustainability reporters, public sector, trade unions, NGO's, consumer organisations, searchers, SR / HSE practitioners.
- Any person interested in understanding and implementing a social responsibility policy and action plan in its organisation.

TRAINERS

- Marie d'Huart and Serge De Backer, founding partners at CAP conseil, registered presenters for ISO 26000 in Belgium and Belgian experts delegated to the ISO Working group in the stakeholders categories "Industry" and "Research".
- Iris Van der Veken, Chair at United Nations Global Compact Network Belgium.